

Keeping nature's most perfect food perfect is Sauder's Eggs' business. Each day they demonstrate pride in their irreplaceable model of small, independent family farms, honoring their 85+ year legacy and roots in Lancaster County, PA, the Napa Valley of Eggs. They stubbornly adhere to strict egg quality standards, establishing new standards of excellence in the industry, and creating new ways to share nature's most perfect food. They strive to produce the highest quality products for their customers and treat their hens with the utmost respect - feeding them better to get a better tasting and nutritionally superior egg.
